

Job Title: Director of Asset Management

Reports To: Director of Real Estate

Job Summary:

We're looking for an individual who has experience with developing new and repurposing existing income producing real estate assets. In addition, this role will include supervision and mentorship of those team members responsible for property management and driving efforts to expand our portfolio of properties.

Responsibilities:

- Requires a thorough knowledge of development, management and evaluation of income producing assets to include acquisition and disposition.
- Strong administrative and organizational skills
- Strong time management skills and ability to prioritize.
- Strong ability to secure property management service agreements.
- Broad understanding of real estate development and property management.

Skills/Qualifications:

- College degree is a plus but not a requirement